STATE WHEAT PROSPECTS UP

Top Defense Heads Meet Twice With Ike

Foreign Policies Studied
Wilson, Radford, Dulles Join In Talks
Democrats Critical

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower Monday discussed the Indo-China crisis for nearly an hour with Secretary of State Dulles and top defense leaders amid a surge of activity suggesting an urgent review of U.S. policy in Europe and the Far East.

It was the second time during the day that Eisenhower had talked with his defense chiefs.

The President conferred with both Secretary of Defense Wilson and Adm. Arthur W. Radford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, during the morning.

Then he summoned them again for an unscheduled White House session with Dulles late in the afternoon.

Asked whether the afternoon session dealt with Indo-China, Dulles told newsmen:

"That would be a pretty good guess."

Demo-Led Storm

Meanwhile, a Democratic-led storm over foreign policy was blowing up on Capitol Hill and elsewhere, with some lawmakers lambasting Dulles and others accusing the Eisenhower administration of abandoning a bipartisan foreign policy.

Sen. Byrd (D-Va.) said in a speech before the National Association of Plumbing Contractors that "as of now" he would oppose any request by Eisenhower for Congress to authorize the use of U. S. troops in Indo-China.

NO INCREASE IN MIND

James C. Hagerty, White House press secretary, told newsmen later he knew of no plan for Eisenhower to ask Congress either for increased defense funds or steps to put universal military training in effect.

U Of N Men Students Storm Women's Dorm

By ALLEN EDEE
Star Staff Writer

Cries of "Go, Go, Go" were shouted by perhaps 1,000 University of Nebraska students on the campus Monday night in a new spring panty raid attempt.

The student mass blocked off 16th Street from S to T, building a blazing street bonfire and attempted to storm the Women's Residence Hall.

Chancellor John K. Selleck, found amidst the shouting students, some carrying women's underclothes, said:

"I see nothing wrong has happened. So long as the students behave themselves they can have a good time."

Selleck himself, Dean of Student Affairs J. P. Colbert and Frank Hallgren, associate dean of student affairs, were shouted down when they attempted to speak to the students.

An informal band added to the officials' vocal blackout.

Students, some masked in handkerchiefs, rushed the women's dorm and pushed through the front door before campus cops excluded them.

During the evening, hoses were played on the windows of women's dorm and ladders were used in an attempt to gain entrance.

When repulsed by campus police, Hallgren and Colbert from the porch of the residence hall—the students sprayed the three with toilet paper and water.

A Fire Department truck came to extinguish the street fire. As it left, students blocked off the street with cars and dragged logs from a nearby vacant lot to rekindle the bonfire.

Girls clad in jeans and sweaters gathered at the bonfire while the residence hall girls gathered at the windows shouting at the boys and keeping all the doors locked.

The student mob attempted one final thrust upon the entrance to the women's residence hall—using a hose, throwing rocks at the windows and knocking out the large porch light.

The "attack" was met head on by a return blast of water from

Truman Says: Joe Is GOP's Problem

Ike Urged To Act On Unity Threats

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL
WASHINGTON (AP)—Former President Truman said Monday Sen. McCarthy of Wisconsin is a Republican problem, and he also urged President Eisenhower to take vigorous action against forces he said are "destroying our national unity and our nation's position before the world."

The President, Truman said, is the one man responsible for halting Republican attacks on Democrats—attacks he contended are undermining a bipartisan foreign policy that is more badly needed now than ever before.

Pious words, Truman said, aren't enough to meet these attacks.

The former chief executive spoke at a National Press Club luncheon, then answered a series of written questions from his audience. The turnout of 552 was the largest in a long series of luncheons at which outstanding world figures have been the guest speakers.

Answering one question, Truman said it so happens that McCarthy isn't a problem of the Democrats.

"Own Mess"

"I'm perfectly willing and perfectly satisfied," he said, "to let the Republicans clean up their own mess."

White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said he had no comment on the ex-President's remarks.

Truman declined to answer, as hypothetical, a question as to what he would do about McCarthy if he still were President, but he did declare:

"If I were head of the Democratic Party and we had a demagogue in the Democratic Party, I'd take care of him."

In his prepared address, Truman didn't mention McCarthy's name. But there was no doubt about whom he was talking—and he got a round of applause when he said that.

"I never asked a man to cooperate with me whom I called a traitor; and I never called a man a traitor whom I wanted to work with me."

Poor Stepping Stone

Referring to a series of McCarthy speeches that called the Roosevelt-Truman administration "20 years of treason," Truman said that "traitor and treason are words that you can't use in friendship, even when you smile." He said that "false charges" about 20 years of treason make a very poor stepping stone to bipartisan cooperation.

Certainly there can't be cooperation from the Democrats, Truman said, when the political leadership of the administration "pick up sponsors, and use them both for organizers and the content of this infamous campaign of defamation."

'Family Physician For Every Family' Said Academy's Goal

By BARCLAY BAYLEY
Star Staff Writer

Family doctors throughout the country face problems in the educational field, hospital field and adverse publicity caused by a small majority of doctors.

That was the opinion expressed by Dr. J. S. DeTar of Milan, Michigan, speaker of the Congress of Delegates of the American Academy of General Practice. He is in Lincoln to address the Nebraska Medical Association's 86th annual session at the Cornhusker Hotel.

The goal of the Academy, Dr. DeTar said, is "a family physician for every family."

To achieve this goal, he said, the

The Rev. D. R. Roker, pastor of Calvary Evangelical United Brethren Church, (above) is the new president of the Lincoln Ministerial Association for the year 1954-1955, succeeding the Rev. C. E. A. McKim of the Tabernacle Christian Church. The Rev. Howard Johnson of Bethany Christian Church was elected vice president, and the Rev. Thomas C. Dick of First Presbyterian Congregation was named secretary. Roker met with the association's annual meeting Monday at South Street Temple.

Late Rains Add Million Bushels

Total Still Below Earlier Estimate; Central, West Short On Moisture

The U.S. Department of Agriculture reported Monday that Nebraska's wheat crop prospects had been increased by a million bushels, as Federal Crop Statistician A. E. Anderson of Lincoln said the moisture picture of the Panhandle "has definitely improved."

Anderson reported that only in Kimball County has the moisture situation not definitely improved. He also pointed out that the new crop estimate did not include the rains which fell in many portions of the state on May 1 and 2.

The southwestern part of the state is "still getting drier," he said, "and that's where a good portion of the state's abandonment (of wheat fields) has come."

On the bright side, Anderson pointed out that the northern and eastern portions of the state were just about up to snuff on rainfall.

He expressed concern for the southwest areas, though, saying "the topsoil is just about completely dry and there is some wilting now."

In Washington, the Department of Agriculture forecast Nebraska's 1954 wheat crop at 64,220,000 bushels, compared with a forecast of 63,274,000 bushels a month ago, according to the Associated Press.

This was still way off the forecast of last December which called for a crop of 70,118,000 bushels.

In the light of current conditions, the Department of Agriculture figured Nebraska's 1954 wheat crop will average 20 bushels per acre from 3,211,000 acres. Last year's crop averaged 22½ bushels per acre.

The current outlook ranks Nebraska second only to Kansas which has a 148,893,000 bushel crop in prospect. Kansas acreage was listed at 9,606,000 and its yield at 15.5 bushels per acre, or 4½ fewer bushels per acre than Nebraska's anticipated yield. This reflects the considerably more serious drought condition to the South.

Drouth 'Stackens'

The monthly report indicated a dry crop of 1,738,000 bushels or nine bushels per acre for Nebraska. Nebraska's 1953 dry crop was 1,224,000 bushels, also nine bushels per acre.

While the improvement in crop conditions reflects some slackening of the drought, the weather bureau's monthly summary still shows a shortage of moisture with the most deficiency in the central and western divisions.

The western part of Nebraska, where most of the state's wheat is grown, had a total rainfall of 10 of an inch during April, which is 1.35 of an inch below normal. In the central division the precipitation for the month was 1.02 of an inch or 1.09 below the normal amount.

K. E. Logan of the state-federal division of agricultural statistics said since May 1 there has been a little precipitation in the south and west, "just enough to carry the crop a little longer. But we can still have more acreage losses in the southwest unless we get some more rain," he added.

As of May 1, Nebraska wheat growers had abandoned about 14 per cent of the acres they planted last fall, that is about the same proportion of abandonment as last year to date.

Gas Users To Get Refund Of $52,000

A net refund of $52,000 will be returned to Class Four or residential gas users in Lincoln following action Monday by the City Council's committee handling rate schedules for gas use.

The refund was announced as back payment for overcharges made locally when higher rates were being considered by the parent company Northern Natural Gas Company. The increases subsequently were turned down, and the local company, Central Electric and Gas Company, voted the refund, under ordinance requirement.

The refund amounts to $57,000 gross, with the final figure encompassing handling costs. On a user basis, the refund amounts to two cents per thousand cubic feet of gas usage.

197 Speed Signs Recently Put Up

Safety and Welfare Director Emmet Junge reported to the City Council that 197 speed signs have been placed in the city under the new program of letting drivers know what the speed limits are.

The majority of the signs have been placed on arterial streets, Junge said, with 45th and Cotner Streets being heavily favored.

9 Proposals Face Voters

Nine proposals will be submitted to the voters of Lincoln at a special election tentatively set for June 15. The proposals will ask voters' permission to issue storm sewer and off-street parking bonds, plus a number of other items. Not to be included is the issue of fluoridation of the city's water.

Her Daughter A Heroine

French And Communists Appear To Be Deadlocked At Geneva

East-West Lines Now Are Drawn

Walter Bedell Smith Offers 'Straight Talk'

GENEVA (AP)—The Communists laid their own armistice plan for Indo-China before the Geneva conference Monday and, after two sessions, the conference appeared deadlocked.

Pham Van Dong, vice premier of the Vietnamese regime, rejected outright the armistice plan proposed by French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault on Saturday. Dong said it could not "serve as a serious basis" for bringing peace to Indo-China.

The French, in turn, rejected the eight-point Vietnamese proposal. A French spokesman said it appeared designed not to stop the war, but to "set the stage for Vietnam to swallow all of Indo-China." France and Vietnam agreed only on evacuating Dien Bien Phu's wounded.

An American spokesman said Britain and the United States had accepted the French proposal as a basis for discussion. The spokesman said the Vietnamese armistice plan would, if adopted, mean a "unconditional surrender in Indo-China."

Molotov Presides

The lines thus were clearly drawn between east and west. Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov, chairman for Monday's session, did not even call a meeting for Tuesday in adjourning Monday's session, and the procedure for the immediate future of the nine-party combat was uncertain.

U. S. Undersecretary of State Walter Bedell Smith called on Molotov, an old adversary, Monday night. While it was described as a courtesy call, informed sources said the American did some "very straight talking."

Smith, a former U. S. ambassador to the Soviet Union, has had many conversations with Molotov, and on some troublesome and ticklish issues. Sources close to the leader of the American delegation said he had hardly spoken more frankly than Monday night.

It is believed the undersecretary told the Russian foreign minister with what gravity the United States views Communist aggression anywhere and especially in southeast Asia.

Agree On Evacuation

While the two armistice conceptions were miles apart, France and her Vietnamese enemies reached agreement on evacuation of wounded from Dien Bien Phu.

Although the Communists earlier had demanded that any truce for evacuation of the wounded be discussed here, Dong agreed to a meeting of opposing commanders in Indo-China to make the necessary arrangements.

Bidault, who had tried for such an arrangement for weeks, accepted the Vietnamese proposal with the remark "better late than never."

The Vietnamese armistice proposal called for withdrawal of all foreign troops and the holding of "free general elections" in the Soviet style, with no outside supervision.

10 Countries Represented As New Citizens Feted At Dinner

By ALLEN EDEE
Star Staff Writer

Band new American citizens from 10 countries around the globe received a rousing welcome at a citizenship dinner Monday evening.

The event drew state, county and city officials to pay their respect to the 23 immigrants who were sworn in Monday in the Federal District Court as citizens of this country.

The dinner at the Chamber of Commerce building was sponsored by the women's division of the Chamber.

More than 200 persons present heard Lieutenant Governor Charles Warner on behalf of Governor Robert Crosby welcome the new citizens for the state of Nebraska.

Mayor Clark Jeary, addressing the new citizens, said, "we expect you to be more than a resident, we ask you to be a citizen and assume the responsibilities we ask of every citizen."

"Don't fall back on a group or organization," he said, "and expect them to carry on."

County Commissioner Chauncey Barney, advisor to the women's Chamber division, also welcomed the group to their new country.

James Olson, superintendent of the State Historical Society, said in the main address that "the foreign born have made a great impact upon Nebraska."

"Nebraska," he said, "has been a more successful melting pot than many of our own large cities."

Other speakers on the program were Miss Lois Tefft, president of the women's Chamber division; Miss Ona Wagner, director of general adult education of Lincoln Public Schools, and Miss Etha Belle Rogers, instructor in citizenship, who also introduced the new citizens.

Mrs. Robert Borgens, German immigrant, thanked the people of Lincoln on behalf of the new citizens and said that "we will do our best to be Americans."

Admitted to U. S. citizenship by Federal District Judge John W. Delehant were:

Mentally Retarded Children's Classes To Start Thursday

The Lancaster Association for Mentally Retarded Children, a private group of parents, will begin classes for 20 "trainable" children this Thursday in a recently acquired building at 21st and J. It was decided by the group's executive board Monday night.

Mrs. Duane Lake of 4103 South is president of the organization. The parents, who have been teaching the children in their homes, will provide the instruction at the new school until a regular teacher is obtained. The children are not trained in public schools because of their retarded state.

Dr. Paul Bancroft and Miss Alice Moore, a teacher who has handled the problem in Massachusetts, were special guests at the session.

Mrs. Lococo, 77, Dies At Hospital

Mrs. Josephine Lococo, 77, 1519 C, died Monday night at a local hospital.

She was a member of St. Mary's Cathedral, the Altar Society and the Rosary Club.

Surviving are a son, James J. Lococo of Belmont, Calif.; five daughters, Miss Agnes Lococo, Mrs. Benna J. Giunta and Mrs. Josephine Stromer, all of Lincoln; Mrs. Mary Gatto of Chicago and Mrs. Antoinette Howard of Alton, Ill.; a sister, Mrs. Mary Catalano of Lincoln, 16 grandchildren and eight great grandchildren.

—McCarthy-Army Controversy— There Are 'Doggone Few Reds In Army'—Stevens

Demo, GOP Committeemen Come Up With Cut-It-Short Proposals

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of the Army Stevens, flouting at Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.), declared Monday there are "doggone few" Communists in the Army and he said he's just as determined as McCarthy to keep every Red out.

McCarthy, in turn, accused Stevens of having a "selective memory" and of being "naively and unintelligently anti-Communist."

The Wisconsin senator said there are men with Communist connections "at this very moment" in one highly sensitive branch of the Army. That subject was dropped for the moment, however, when the Army denied any knowledge of the division McCarthy mentioned.

In the midst of Monday's wrangling, Democrats and Republicans on the Senate Investigations Subcommittee each came up with a plan to shorten the 13-day-old televised inquiry into the McCarthy - Pentagon row.

A formal vote on the proposals was the first order of business Tuesday (8:30 a.m., CST). And, though the Republicans hold a 4-3 voting edge, indications were that if either plan was adopted it was more likely to be the Democratic one.

News Around The Globe

A-Industry Snag

WASHINGTON (INS)—The administration's drive to pave the way for a private atomic power industry ran into sharp disagreement over whether proposed legislation would establish "a pattern of monopoly for all time."

The controversy arose at opening hearings on a bill which would permit private firms to build A-power plants under license by the Atomic Energy Commission.

CIO To Sign

WASHINGTON (AP)—The CIO decided to sign a "no raiding" pact with the AFL despite the fact some major AFL and CIO unions apparently won't go along with the plan.

The CIO executive board authorized its Labor Unity Committee to exchange signatures as soon as possible with the AFL for whatever unions in both organizations may be willing to ratify the agreement.

13-Year-Old Killed

WEST ORANGE, N. J. (AP)—A mother returning from a YWCA meeting found her son, a 13-year-old Boy Scout, hanging in the family garage.

Authorities said the victim, Robert Mowle, apparently hanged himself accidentally while practicing knot-tying for a troop contest.

Workers On Time

PITTSBURGH (AP)—This steel city's estimated 200,000 commuters crowded into the Golden Triangle, most of them in time for work, despite a strike of 2,700 trolley and bus operators.

They walked. They thumbed rides. They even pedaled youngsters' bicycles, but they got there. The strike, now in its second day, leaves the nation's 12th largest city without its mass transportation system.

Red Quiz Set

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Internal Security Subcommittee announced that a Russian secret police officer who abandoned an assassination plot and surrendered to Americans in Germany has been brought to the United States.

The man, Capt. Nikolai E. Khokhlov is to appear before a secret session of the subcommittee Tuesday morning.

Evacuation Plan

SAIGON, Indo-China, (Tuesday) (AP)—The French government instructed its top military commander in Indo-China today to arrange with the Vietnamese for evacuation of French Union wounded from Dien Bien Phu.

Gen. Henri Navarre, commander of French Union forces in Indo-China, was ordered to contact the rebels' Communist military chief, Gen. Vo Nguyen Giap, to arrange the airlift.

ferred with the ambassadors of Australia, Thailand and the Philippines to discuss his proposal for creation of an anti-Communist "united front" in the Far East.

Lincoln White State Department press officer, told newsmen Dulles called the envoys "to find out who is to join the united front and what commitments they are prepared to make."

MOUNTING CRITICISM

These developments came against a background of mounting criticism by Democratic leaders, including former President Truman, against the Eisenhower administration's conduct of foreign affairs.

Democratic blasts generally centered on the crisis in Indo-China following the downfall of the French fortress at Dien Bien Phu and the gloomy diplomatic outlook at the East-West conference in Geneva, Switzerland.

Sen. Kefauver (D-Tenn) told the Senate that American leadership is now "at the lowest point since the day the United States entered World War II."

Sen. Smathers (D-Fla) urged the United States to seek additional Allies in the struggle against Communism, declaring that America's "Old Allies," including Britain and France, no longer stand up with this country "in resolute determination to oppose Communist aggression."

The Florida senator said in his prepared text "we need perhaps to replace these ancient and honored Allies." In making the speech on the Senate floor, however, he substituted the word "reinforce" for "replace," thus making a considerable change of emphasis.

J. Edgar Hoover Says Spy Hunt Is Job For FBI

Bureau Is U.S. 1st Defense

By DON WHITEHEAD
Copyright 1954 Press
WASHINGTON (AP)—FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover, who has been exposing Communists and Red operations for more than 30 years, is convinced the hunt for spies and subversives is a job for professionals such as the FBI. He said in an interview: "The FBI is the country's first defense against espionage and subversion. If we fail, the security of this country will be shaken. But we won't fail."

He said he was touched by the recent speech of President Eisenhower in which the President said: "Our great defense against those people (Communists) is the FBI. The FBI has been doing for years in this line of work a magnificent job. They are a great bulwark."

Hoover said: "Investigating subversives is a highly professional job. The FBI is the agency to which people who have any information along this line should turn. In World War I, I saw abuses from well-meaning people and the development of a vigilante attitude. "Then in World War II, I was approached by groups who wanted to help investigate. They wanted badges and authority to make investigations of their own. I flatly refused. I knew the work had to be handled by professionals. I knew the only sound way to deal with the problem was through constituted law enforcement agencies. I told them to turn their information over to the FBI—not to investigate themselves."

"In recent years I've noted a tendency toward loose name-calling in matters which should be left in the hands of the FBI to prove or disprove. And this takes in the Ku Klux Klan, revolutionary movements and fascism, as well as Communism."

Field reports are coming into FBI headquarters here that the Communists are preparing a new "smear" campaign against the FBI. Hoover said attacks from this source already are being stepped up. One field message advised that some Communists are convinced they have made a mistake in leveling attacks against Sen. Joseph McCarthy, the Wisconsin Red hunter, rather than the "main enemy," the FBI. Another report indicated the Reds have turned from attacking McCarthy because of a belated realization that congressional committees are working with information already combed over by the FBI—and that the FBI is the only agency with pipelines into the current situation within the underground Communist party.

To Hoover, Communist attacks are old stuff. He has been a prime target ever since 1920 when as a young Department of Justice attorney he prosecuted an anarchist group of aliens—a prosecution that led to the deportation of 249 of the defendants.

Crosby Hears Carmody Pen Inquiry Plan

Gov. Robert Crosby said Monday that he discussed with Sen. Arthur Carmody the advisability of an investigation of operations of the State Penitentiary by a disinterested citizens group.

The governor said that he explained that he visits the penitentiary monthly for pardon board hearings and has opportunity to visit with both inmates and employees on conditions.

"The administration must be pretty fair," the governor said, "because we have had no outbreaks such as have been reported in other states. There are always minor difficulties which cannot be avoided where men are confined for committing serious offenses."

He said it was true that a guard had been killed which was unfortunate and deplorable, but that an investigation was underway at the present time.

The governor said that Sen. Carmody had no specific information of mismanagement, but believed that an inquiry would stop ugly gossip that is heard over the state.

Gov. Crosby said he has made no decision as to whether an inquiry should be conducted.

Brown said it probably would be about a month before decisions are made on high schools providing training sufficient for admittance of graduates to colleges of higher education.

Congress Gets Anti-Red Proposals Of Brownell

WASHINGTON (AP) — Atty. Gen. Brownell sent to Congress two bills designed to advance the program he has announced for dealing with Communists and other subversive elements in the country.

One of the bills would give the federal government new authority to bar subversives from privately-owned civilian defense plants.

The other would empower the Subversive Activities Control Board to order the dissolution of any business enterprise or labor organization found to be controlled by Communists and in a position to affect adversely the national defense or security.

White House OK

In identical letters to Vice President Nixon and House Speaker Martin (R-Mass.), Brownell said that both proposals had been approved by the White House, and had been reviewed by the National Security Council. He wrote:

"These bills will go far toward closing gaps in present laws dealing with subversion and in tightening the legal net around the Communist conspiracy."

The attorney general noted that present law bars subversives from plants directly engaged in defense contracts, and asserted that it is known that some such persons are now employed in private plants not so engaged, but whose facilities are important to the national defense. He mentioned power plants and facilities engaged in producing other basic materials or supplies, the sabotage of which would materially curtail defense production.

Important Consideration

"Espionage," he said, "is also an important consideration."

The barring of any persons from such employment would require the bringing of specific charges, followed by a hearing.

Familiar Figure At Fairbury Plans To Retire Soon

New Machine To Replace Sweeper, 72

Lincoln Star Special
FAIRBURY, Neb.—One of Fairbury's most familiar figures, a man with a broom and a pushcart, will go out of business July 1. John Drake, 72, the last of the street sweepers employed by the city, will retire then.

The City Council has decided that the job of keeping the streets clean can be handled with a mechanical sweeper.

Drake came to the Fairbury vicinity from Indiana in 1885. His family farmed a homestead seven miles southwest of Fairbury for many years.

Drake has been starting to work on the city square at 4 a.m. in the summer months for about 25 years. He starts to work at the early hour so he can sweep before the cars start to park.

"There haven't been many horses to contend with since I've been on the job," Drake said.

Winter Months Worst
One of the worst aspects of his job is chopping ice and shoveling snow during the winter months.

The friendly street sweeper manages to do lots of visiting with persons who pass by when he is at work. One of his pet peeves is the person who inadvertently parks over a pile of dirt, then gets out of his car and asks "if it is in the way."

Many persons stop to talk politics with Drake. But, he says, "working for the city I don't argue politics, but I get a kick out of listening and it makes them feel better."

Street sweeping hasn't proved particularly profitable for Drake as far as finding valuable items is concerned. Once he found two $5 bills in a pile of debris. He also came across a $10 bill which he turned over to the owner and a $500 check belonging to a Fairbury businessman. Other items he has found range from false teeth to wearing apparel.

Drake has no immediate plans for his retirement.

"I guess I'll just fink around the house and yard and maybe I can get a little work taking care of people's yards," he said.

He and Mrs. Drake have eight grandchildren and four great grandchildren with whom they hope to spend some time. They have three daughters. Mrs. Nellie Brown and Mrs. Beulah Churchill, both of Fairbury, and Mrs. Gladys Hinderks of Atlanta, N. J., and one son, Ormal of Grand Island.

Progress Made In 'Indian Rights' Legislation—Butler

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Hugh Butler announced Monday the Senate Interior and Insular Affairs Committee, of which he is chairman, is moving forward with its program of legislation to abolish all special restrictions on certain Indian tribes considered to be fully able to handle their own affairs.

"I want to emphasize that the laws we are proposing will deal only with those Indian tribes which have completely adjusted to the modern world we live in," Butler said. "However, there are quite a number of Indian groups which should have been freed from all special federal restrictions years ago. Many of these Indians are high school and college graduates, professional men, successful businessmen or farmers, and army or navy officers. It is ridiculous that such people should be kept in the status of wards of the government, in a class with minors and imbeciles."

The first bill reported by the committee dealt with certain bands of Indians in Utah. The effect of the measure is to exempt these Indians from all the special federal laws applicable only to Indians, and so give them the same status as other American citizens.

Other measures which may be considered, Butler said, will probably affect groups of Indians in Western Oregon, Texas, Kansas, California, and the Menominee tribe of Wisconsin.

Cool Weather Fails To Halt May Day Fete

Lincoln Star Special
PERU, Neb.—Phyllis Davenport of Peru and Ben Duerfeldt of Missouri were crowned queen and king respectively of the annual Peru State May fete in top-coat weather.

This year's colorful event followed an Indian theme in the setting erected on the campus quadrangle and in the musical numbers which made up the short program.

After Master of Ceremonies Robert Moore, a transplanted Oklahoman, extended a typical southwestern Indian greeting to the crowd and introduced the royal party, solo vocal selections were given by students Marvin Wustler and Betty Hogue, both of Dawson. Instrumental numbers included a flute solo by Margaret Christy of Brock, and a trumpet solo by Arthur Landahl, a faculty member.

Maypole Ceremony
The Maypole winding ceremony which completed the program was performed by a group of seventh and eighth grade girls from the Campus School under the direction of Mrs. Frances Wheeler, supervisor of elementary physical education.

Attendants to the king and queen were Mary Hogue, Blue Island, Ill., and Loren Argabright, Nemaha; juniors Lee Norris, Clayton, Kan., and Barbara Davis, Brock; sophomores Rodger Majors, Peru, and Mary Moore, Nemaha; juniors Lee Norris, Clayton, Kan., and Bonnie Morris, Auburn.

Crown bearers were Laurlee Downing and Pamela Morrissey and a group of 10 freshman girls served as ladies in waiting. They were Mary Ann Leybold, Lincoln; Bonnie Butz, Dawson; Phyllis Constant, Underwood, Ia.; Kay Phelps Bellevue; Edith Haxton, Sabetha, Kan.; Gloria O'Hara, Auburn; Dorothy Tucker, Tecumseh; Gai Percival, Falls City; Donna Duey, Brock, and Twila Holmes, Nemaha.

General chairman of the May Fete was Marilyn Hawxby, Nemaha, who was assisted by program chairman John Christ, Jr., Peru, and publicity chairman Lee Norris, Clayton, Kan. and Loren Argabright, Nemaha.

NU Hospital Nursery Is Imperiled

OMAHA (AP)—Hospital attendants moved quickly Monday to whisk 21 newborn babies to safety when smoke started pouring into the third floor-nursery for newborn at the University of Nebraska Hospital.

A fire department official said later that electrical wiring in the sub-basement had ignited insulating material and smoke was blown up the ventilator.

When the smoke first appeared the three attendants turned in an alarm and immediately started evacuating the infants—five of them in incubators. Within five minutes all the babies were safe in the pediatric ward in another wing of the building. An intern and a medical student came to the aid of the attendants.

Meanwhile, the Omaha fire department sent three engine companies, two truck companies and a district chief and the rescue squad to the hospital.

Battalion Fire Chief John M. Vail said the fire department and the University Hospital engineer, Ralph Wilson, had recently conducted a training program for such emergencies.

Dorm Blast Cause Fixed

FREMONT, Neb. (AP)—The accumulating of boiler scale which plugged an automatic control has been blamed for a chain of events which led to a Midland College dormitory explosion in which two persons were injured.

State Fire Marshal E. C. Iverson reported the source of the blast was in the boiler room in the back of the Midland auditorium building, several hundred feet from the explosion.

As the result of the clogged control, the boiler ran dry while fuel oil continued to burn. The boiler became so hot holes melted in tubes and opened the fire box to the steam chambers.

"Partly burned gases and vapors from the fuel oil thus had access to the steam line and were carried to the Men's dormitory," the report said. "Here they escaped through the condensate pump vents into the pump room where they exploded."

Injured were Marshall Farley, 20, Missouri Valley, Iowa, student, and Ralph Scott, 64, custodian.

NU Prof Aids In '1952 Nomination' Study

Nebraskans may well ask themselves what they expect of the delegates they send to presidential nominating conventions—at least, that's the suggestion of Dr. Robert Morgan, assistant professor of political science at the University of Nebraska.

Dr. Morgan is one of more than 300 American political scientists who participated in a unique, five-volume study of "Presidential Nominating Politics in 1952."

Preparation of the volumes was a project of the American Political Science Association financed by a grant from the Edgar B. Steins Family Fund, New Orleans, with no strings attached.

The books were released Monday by The Johns Hopkins University Press and one of the first Nebraskans to see them was Gov. Robert Crosby who received a set presented on behalf of the association by Dr. Morgan.

20-Page Report

At the close of a 20-page report on the pre-primary period in Nebraska, the primary, and the post-primary days, Dr. Morgan concludes that the central problem of presidential selection activity in Nebraska revolves around two questions: (1) what is the role of a delegate to the national conventions?; and (2) what ought the role be?

"The extent to which delegates follow the results of the primary," Dr. Morgan wrote, "varies with their personal preferences or nominees, their personal political ambitions at home, and the solidarity of the support they enjoy in their constituencies. At the same time, most delegates appear to be sensitive to the sentiments of the home folks and they are willing to stray from some arguable interpretation of the preferential vote. Fortunately for some delegates, there are usually as many acceptable interpretations of the vote as there are candidate preferences."

Accepted Rule

Dr. Morgan appraises Nebraska as a state where "politics by personality" seems the accepted rule in the absence of so-called machine politics. He cites the Republican acceptance of Terry Carpenter, a former Democrat, as a delegate-at-large to the Republican convention as one bit of evidence to support his appraisal.

He also suggests that Nebraska might be completely a one-party state "were it not for the intrusion of national issues." In Nebraska, Dr. Morgan says, "The national Democratic Party has been attractive only in period of drought, depression, or despair—and then not for long."

This Situation

This situation, he suspects, stems from a habit of traditional family voting which goes back to the days of extensive settlement by Union Army veterans after the Civil War.

School Lands Board Hears 'Rent's Too High' Complaints

The State Board of Educational Lands and Funds met Monday to consider 23 complaints on changes in classification of school lands. Most of the complaints were that the rent is "too high."

Some of the complaints came from lease holders who objected that there was little profit left after they had sub-leased the land to the person actually farming it.

Land Improved

They explained that they had improved the land by terraces, drainage and dams as well as putting needed lime on the land. They said in private rentals the owners paid a share of the fertilizer cost.

In Lancaster County, an attorney appeared for Mayne Neylon who has a lease on 157 acres north of Lincoln. It is saline land and is appraised at $56 an acre. It was explained that the renter of this land and 250 acres of deeded land pays $5 per acre cash rent.

Walter E. Sundeen, who leases 160 acres appraised at $125, said the rent is too high because it amounted to half of his gross income last year. He has been leasing the land for 30 years.

Women Troopers Next?

ALBANY, N. Y. (INS)—New York state may get lady troopers next year. Albin S. Johnson, superintendent of the state police, revealed that while there are no women troopers in his force, and there are no appropriations to enlist them this year, "we are studying the possibility of using them" and next year's Legislature may be asked to okay the move.

Wagner Still Wants Action On Sales Tax

(Special to The Star)

BRIDGEPORT, Neb. — Frederick H. Wagner said he would still like to see the Legislature pass a sales tax and then submit it for referendum approval or disapproval by the voters.

The Republican candidate for governor spoke here Monday night before the Lions Club.

Wagner said the special legislative session removed some of the road blocks toward increasing the tax base and has provided the machinery for the voters to make a decision concerning the Nebraska tax problem.

Realism Overdone

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP)—Morris Ford, a Coopersville, Mich., youngster, and Henry Liefers, his grandfather, were deeply absorbed in a television jungle show when a tiger appeared in the play. "Don't worry," Liefers yelled, "I'll get that tiger!" He grabbed his grandson's air rifle, thinking it wasn't loaded. Liefers got his tiger—and the television set, too.

Star of Excellence

Again — for the fifth time — Storz Beer has received International recognition. Prior to last year, Storz had been awarded four world's championships for quality unsurpassed.

1953 marked the first time Storz had taken part in these international competitions since it had won its previous four world's championships.

Last year, in Paris, France — Storz received the highest honor bestowed on any malt beverage — the Star of Excellence award — in competition open to all American and Canadian Beers.

Judged for flavor, purity, body and bouquet, Storz matchless quality won the Star of Excellence recognition among the finest beers in the world.

This is nothing new to Nebraskans. Storz has been their favorite — the largest selling beer in Nebraska for 20 consecutive years. In 1953, this margin of leadership was larger than ever before — a tribute to the quality standard that has been traditional with Storz for over 78 years.

Four times in previous international competition Storz has won world's championships. In Paris... in Brussels... and in two American Expositions it has received the highest recognition for its superb quality.

Had Chapel Wedding

Cathedral candles, in seven-branched candelabra, and arrangements of white gladioli and Ester Reed daisies appointed the chancel of Memorial chapel of St. Paul Methodist Church where the marriage of Miss Helen JoAnn Polson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse M. Polson, to Richard Don Bloom, son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Bloom, took place on Monday afternoon, May 10.

The lines of the 3 o'clock service were read by Dr. Frank A. Court, minister of St. Paul Methodist, and the wedding music was played by Houghton Furr, organist.

Mrs. Richard J. Polson, as her sister-in-law's matron of honor and only attendant, wore a two-piece frock of chambray in the iridescent grape tone, fashioned in the daytime mode. Her small hat was white, and her shoulder corsage was of yellow roses.

Jack Bloom served his brother as best man, and seating the guests were Don Weller and Dean Soulek.

For the ceremony the bride chose a frock of pale beige faille, of day-time length, ornamented with seed pearls and rhinestones. The pearls and rhinestones were repeated on her beige straw hat, and pinned to her shoulder was a corsage of apricot-tinted carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception for the 100 wedding guests was held in the church parlors where the refreshment table was centered with a four-tiered wedding cake, and appointed with spring blossoms and candles.

After a brief honeymoon trip, for which Mrs. Bloom wore a navy suit, with matching accessories, Lt. Bloom and his bride will go to Cheyenne, Wyo., where the bridegroom is stationed at Camp Frances Warren.

During the business meeting, plans were made for the annual installation of officers to be held May 20.

Mrs. William Ferguson and Mrs. Arnold Hart were hostesses to the members of Alpha Tau chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, at the group's regular meeting, Friday evening, in the chapter room.

A report on the state convention, held recently at North Platte, was given by Mrs. Willis Heint, and guest speaker was Mrs. Willard Beck who described her hobby of ceramics, and exhibited articles she had made.

THE WAY MY FAMILY LIKES IT

Although it's a matter of public record that Mrs. Richard Faulkner is a wonderful and creative homemaker, here we have her daughter, Miss Alison Faulkner, turning the tables on mother and showing Mrs. Faulkner a few steps around the kitchen.

Miss Faulkner serves the following spaghetti dinner with the ease and graciousness with which she does everything, and she maintains that the actual preparation is not nearly as formidable as it looks on paper!

Spaghetti
(Serves 6 with leftovers)
Saute the following vegetables, finely chopped, in 3 T. butter.

3 med. green peppers
3-4 Bermuda onions
1 clove garlic
1 bunch celery
Meanwhile, brown 1 1/2 lbs. ground round steak, lightly floured and seasoned with salt and pepper, in suet, preferably. Cook, stirring to separate meat and prevent from sticking. Set aside.

Add 1/2 c. water to vegetable mixture with 1 t. each thyme, mace, celery seed, and marjoram; 1/2 t. freshly ground pepper, and let simmer covered for about 10 min.

Combine two 6 oz. cans tomato paste, 4 T. vinegar, 6 T. sugar, and rinse tomato paste can four times with water. Add to meat, with vegetable mixture. Saute 1 box mushrooms, quartered, or two cans chopped, in butter in the first frying pan. Combine and cover the whole works and let simmer for one or two hours, stirring occasionally, and adding water if it gets too thick. If desired, add 1 t. tabasco sauce and 1/2 c. grated New York cheddar cheese.

About a half hour before supper, Alison cooks 1/2 lb. long Italian spaghetti until slightly underdone. She serves the spaghetti and sauce separately, with a salad of greens, finely chopped raw cauliflower and avocado with a lemon-olive oil dressing; bread stix; and for dessert, a meringue shell with ice cream and red raspberries.

POSTCARD

The facts in this story are true. Only the husbands have been changed to protect the innocent.

Before she became Madame la Marquise, she lived not far from Peoria, Ill. She married an Illinois rug man a n u f a c t u r e r who had the g o o d b r e e d i n g to leave her a million dollars when he departed this world in a fit of rage over income tax and the Roosevelt Administration.

The widow has been living in France for the past ten years. Three years ago she married a French marquis. She divorced him with mutual regards a year ago.

Nowadays you see Madame la Marquise around the elegant Ritz Bar of an evening. She entertains all the best people. There is always one big name movie star at her parties.

She is very fond of being Madame la Marquise. Her dresses are done by Balmain and Jacques Fath. They know her well at Hermes swank glove shop and Van Cleef & Arpels.

"And what would please Madame la Marquise today?"

The Marquis doesn't live in Paris anymore. Before they were divorced she took him on a visit to the home town. He lives there now. Comfortably on Madame's settlement.

"The people in Illinois know him as 'Mr. Fellein'." The last of a string of ancestral names and lands that made up his names when he was in the Marquis business.

Mrs. A. J. Willemstadt, the Savoy-Plaza, New York City, came into the Morgan bank in the Place Vendome the other day.

I know this because she announced it.

"I am Mrs. A. J. Willemstadt of the Savoy-Plaza in New York," she said.

Mrs. Willemstadt was dressed in fashion. But fashion could not do much for her figure which has been stuffed with sweet profiteroles these many years.

She said she considered it outrageous that she must show a passport in order to cash her traveler's checks.

"I don't carry it about with me," she said. "I leave it in my hotel room. You may call my hotel if you wish."

"Madame is American?" said the clerk.

Madame gave a short-barking laugh. "My husband's people came with the first New York Dutch. Of course I am an American."

Madam has signed herself "Mrs. R. B. Willemstadt," said the clerk mildly.

"I sign it that way. But I AM Mrs. A. J. Willemstadt," said Madame. "I live at the Savoy-Plaza, New York City. I can identify myself."

"Ah, said the clerk. "What identification does Madame have?"

"I have my visiting card," said Madame haughtily.

In the evening, the international Willemstadts and Madame la Marquise and the visiting firemen all go to the Ritz Bar. The Ritz Bar is supposed to make the best martini in Europe. Some aficionados say it is the best in the world.

When you order a martini in France you ask for "un dry." All through the Ritz Bar you hear the cry: "Un dry, s'il vous plait."

"Yes, madam," say the English-speaking waiters. They have the faces of a Mother Lode poker player. Never a flicker.

Bannister Eyes World 880 Record

LONDON (AP)—Roger Bannister announced Monday he will return to the track May 20—and may try to add the world half mile record to his monumental 3:59.4 mile mark.

The lanky, 24-year-old medical student said he would run the half mile for London University against Oxford University at Moutspur Park, Surrey, in an inter-universities meet.

America's Mal Whitfield holds the present world record of 1:48.6 for the half mile. Track experts argue the mark is especially vulnerable and may go by the board this summer. They contend the time is well within the scope of a runner of Bannister's capabilities.

Originally Bannister was a half-mile specialist. Then he concentrated on the mile with the four-minute mark his goal.

Now he has achieved that he probably intends to concentrate on the half mile.

"I'm going to run quite a few half miles in the immediate future," he said. "I hope to compete over this distance in the International Race at the British Games in London, June 5-7."

Asked if he planned an attack on Whitfield's half mile mark on May 20, Bannister replied: "It is hard to say. My plans are not yet very definite."

Bannister has another London date June 12 for a combined Oxford and Cambridge meet against Cornell and Pennsylvania universities. Officials aim to ask Bannister to run the half-mile at that event.

The former Oxonian is eligible to run for London University against his old university because he is finishing his medical studies here.

Meanwhile congratulations for Bannister for his mile effort still pour in. The latest is from Queen Elizabeth's husband, the Duke of Edinburgh. He sent "congratulations on your splendid achievement" from Gibraltar where he is accompanying the Queen on the last lap of her empire-circling tour.

The Firing Line

by Norris Anderson
SPORTS EDITOR,
THE STAR

Moving the sports lawn Okay. Roger (The Lodger) Bannister has run the mile in 3:59.4 and Parry O'Brien has tossed the shot over 60 feet. The seven-foot high jump and 16-foot pole vault are coming up in this day of miracles.

Maybe Nebraska's C.A. even beat Oklahoma at football, huh.

Here's a "fin" against your thin time that the Chicago White Sox wind up with Paul Giel, Minne-sota's footballer extraordinary and baseball pitcher of high promise.

General Manager Frankie Lane, no dummy he. will whip the high bonus offers from other sources with a simple plan. A good financial offer in addition to selling Giel the proven fact that Manager Paul Richards of the White Sox is the best tutor of pitchers in baseball.

Listen to Lane: "Giel is a very intelligent youngster. He is intelligent enough to know that Paul Richards will teach him enough to make him a winner."

Speaking of Lane reminds your flabby flinger of a scene in the summer of 1951 at Comiskey Park in Chicago. . . . Pistol Pete Jancos, then a Husker coach, and The Firing Line were sitting next to D. N. Bible, the former NU gridmaster, at the Chisox Park. . . . While waiting the All-Star game, in which Fran Nagle was a participant, we had all come out to watch the White Sox play Cleveland. . . . We had just chatted with Nellie Fox, the former Sherman Field sparkler, and had settled down to watch the Chisox whip through their warmups chores. . . . Nope, that second baseman wasn't Nellie. . . . Too big. . . . Yet he zipped the ball around like a big leaguer. . . . We looked again—sure enough, it was Bobby Reynolds the Huskers' All-American grinder, taking a workout at Mister Lane's invitation. That was before Bobby's two shoulder separations, his eye burn and broken leg. . . . We think of the scene today when we see Reynolds, probably finished with athletics at 22, working as an insurance salesman in Lincoln.

Lew Worsham, the celebrated pro golfer of Tam O'Shanter fame, will play with another linker who knows how to use a wedge, name of Bill Mowbray, a the Lincoln Country Club Wednesday. . . . Completing the forenoon will be Harry Megennis and Dick Spangler, Jr. . . .

There probably is no better baseball fan than P. A. "Pete" Youngscaap, 3010 Cable. . . . Pete has helped with the Chiefs stock drives and has always had a close eye on the majors.

One day, Pete, was having breakfast at a cafe close to the Continental National Bank where he works. . . . He picked up the paper, gulped twice and scanned the headline: "Youngscaap Sold to Yankees." . . . It turned out to be a prank played by Wheaton and Walker Batter, two of Lincoln's finest citizens.

Answering the mail. . . . Yes, Gene Tunney was a prelin boxer on the Jack Dempsey-Georges Carpenter card in 1921. . . . Yes, the Red McQuillen of the Lincoln Chiefs is the same Red McQuillen who used to be a regular with the old St. Louis Browns and Toledo.

That Paul Amen, who is on the selection committee of the upcoming NCAA baseball World Series in Omaha, is the same Paul Amen of Husker three-sport fame. . . . Paul, as every knows is now baseball baseball coach and head football scout at West Point.

Manager Whitley Wietelmann of the Lincoln Chiefs is catching on with the fans. . . . His good-natured personality peeks through even during the fire of battle and there is plenty of winning fire in the stocky tow-head. . . . He banters with the best of the Leftfield Bleachers Advisory Committee and, so far, he has proven himself a plenty resourceful operator in his handling of affairs during the game. . . . We predict that Whitley will emerge, along with Denver's Andy Cohen, as the league's two best-like skippers.

Andy, in his several successful years at Denver, has always been Lincoln's favorite manager outside of his own kin. . . . He rarely misses an angle and exudes smart, far-sighted baseball every moment. . . . Besides that, he's one of the league's best hands at handling jittery rookies.

Lincoln High Hammers Out 10-2 Win Over NE

Lincoln High cracked the slow stuff of Rocket Rudy Stoehr for 11 solid base hits and a 10-2 victory over Northeast in a ball game on Mundy Field Monday afternoon.

Bill Bergstraesser, Lincoln's junior right-hander, stopped the Rockets through six innings with one hit and another right-hander, Dick Hergenrader, was touched for one blow in the last inning.

Lincoln cracked the game wide open in the second with six runs on three hits and poor Northeast fielding. Three more runs in the third built the score to 9-0 and a Lincoln lead which was never challenged seriously.

Third baseman Cliff Hardesty started the second with a walk. Catcher Ron Bayless singled through the hole into left field to put Hardesty on third.

Jim Maul skied high to right field and Hardesty scored on the relay. The ball was cut off and thrown to third to catch Bayless on an attempted advance, but the big receiver came in sliding and jarred the ball loose from Third Baseman John Douthitt.

Bayless scored on the play to clear the bases, but Larry Littrell singled into center. Bergstraesser and Roger Khronek lived on errors and Shortstop Gary Smith lined a hard triple to left center to knock in two runs and scored on a Northeast error on the relay from the outfield. Lincoln scored in the second on singles by Bayless, Littrell, Khronek and Smith and a walk to Bergstraesser.

Northeast scored both runs on errors, but the two Rocket hits were sharp blows by the Douthitt brothers, Jim and John, transfers from Ord.

Mile Mark Threatened In Class B

Gail Heffelfinger, a slim high school senior who grew up in the shadows of Memorial Stadium, Saturday afternoon will be favored to run the state's best milers into the red cinders of that same stadium in the 52nd Nebraska Track and Field Championships.

Heffelfinger, the fastest miler in the state this year, is the best performer Coach Dale Snook of Lincoln Teachers will present in defense of the Class B title Lincoln Teachers won last spring.

Three years ago Heffelfinger was a foul ball shagger for the University of Nebraska baseball teams. Today he is a smooth runner who did a 4:37.5 in the Nebraska City Invitational and could beat a thirty year jinx in his final race Saturday.

Thirty years back a Class B miler named Howard Welsch ran the mile in 4:35.9 for Gothenburg. Bill Mounford holds the state record with a 4:26.2 done in the Miracle Mile of 1947.

If the tireless Tutor doesn't break a record Saturday, Class B spectators may listen for a shattering sound when David City's Robbie Armagast goes against the quarter-mile field.

Armagast, just another 440 dash man who clocked nothing special all spring, suddenly dashed to a :50.7 in the district qualifying meet last week and now will come into the Stadium as the boy who is two-tenths of a second off the state record.

He stands out among the Class B 440 men while Mick Morton of Bassett, a .51.9 performer, is the closest competitor.

A successor to Holdrege's fleet Jim Easter as king of the 100-yard dash may be found in two lads who chased him into Class B records last year.

Dirk Young of Imperial was second in 1953 and Don Phillip of Burwell was third. Young has done a .09.9 and Phillips a .10.1.

O'Neill's Larry Chace will be up there with the top two. Bann will come back atop favorite in the 220-yard dash with Tyke Arnold of Broken Bow and Chace big opponents.

Big Bob Harry, York's versatile junior athlete, will bid strongly in the hurdles against a field which includes Bill Larson, a .15.3 performer in the 120-yard highs, and Joe Long, a .21.1 stepper in the 180-lows.

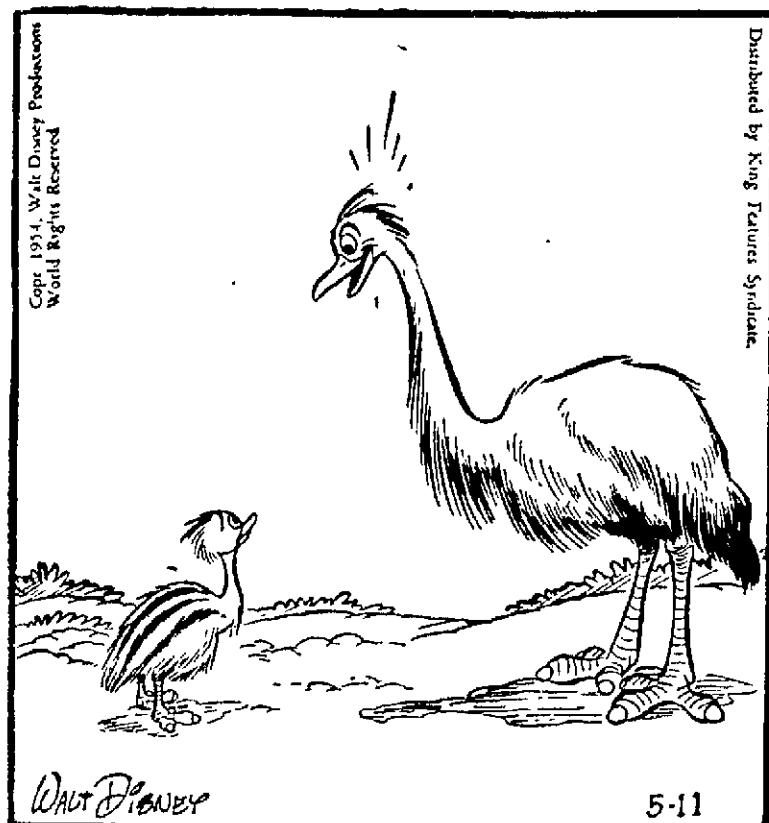

Ron Gray of Hebron will bring a .15.7 into the hurdle competition.

The Ord two-mile relay team held the spring state record, an 8:31.5 which cuts three-tenths of a second off the state Class B mark this school set last spring.

In the shot put, Class B may dominate the entire four-class field when Coad's Jerry Bubak begins to throw. The Haymaker has pushed the iron ball to 51-1 1/2 to lead the state.

Perhaps another York boy, high jumper Duane Smith, will emerge from the Championships with the best performance of this annual show. He has gone higher than anyone else in Nebraska and may crack the 6-2 1/2 which has stood since 1940 and which another Class B jumper, Dale Knotek, of Holdrege, tied last year.

Stocks Mart Rides On Recent Highs
NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market coasted along Monday on its recent buoyancy and managed to make slight progress.

Trading was around the lowest ebb of the past month. There was no particular enthusiasm either for the early advance of prices or for the later decline.

Railroads were ahead a little as were the steel, utilities, motors, copiers and some others. Most of the rest of the list was steady to mixed with many shows in chemicals, oils and electronics.

The market on average is at the highest level of the past 24 months, a peak that has been reached in the last few months.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks Monday gained 10 cents to 127.70, another new high mark of $127.70, the seventh new high of the past eight sessions.

Stocks on the American Exchange were mostly higher on volume of 320,000 shares, the same as traded Friday.

Spear Named In GOP Harmony Show Succeeds Martin As Chairman

By ARCH DONOVAN
Star Staff Writer

If there is factional dissension in Republican ranks, it did not crop out in the open at a meeting of the state Central Committee here Monday which selected W. W. Spear, Fremont attorney, to succeed David Martin of Kearney, who resigned to enter the race for nomination for U. S. Senator.

Only hint that all might not be "sweetness and love" came in the nomination of Charles Reed of Omaha. However, he immediately withdrew his name stating that he was "in no sense a candidate."

Spear said that he would not immediately name a woman as vice-chairman and the he was "impartial" among suggested candidates. He said he would welcome discussions with committee members and others before making his selection.

The new chairman said he considered it a "good omen" that the committee could "agree on something" and expressed appreciation that his election was unanimous. He pointed out that there is "some work to do in Nebraska."

Spear said the administration needed a "strong Republican Congress" and that Eisenhower Democrats could not be counted upon to support the party. He said that it appeared the next election would be "so close nationally that this state could tip the balance either way."

Martin reported that the campaign for petition signers to place on the ballot a constitutional amendment making the Legislature partisan instead of non-partisan was not getting needed support. He explained that he only had 3,000 signers of the 60,000 necessary.

The Republican chairman said that William Meier, Democratic chairman, had not reported to him yet on his success.

Joseph Wishart, finance chairman, reported that the party finances are "at the lowest ebb in many years" and urged that party workers push the sale of tickets to the $50 a plate dinner in Omaha on May 21. Sen.

Bricker of Ohio is to be the speaker. National demands for party financing are greater, Wishart explained and "early money is needed."

Adopted was a resolution asking for termination of the current McCarthy-Army hearings in Washington. Joseph Tye of Kearney, is moving for the action, said he was "sick and sore at heart" over the hearings. "It's time to cut out this damn foolishness" Tye asserted.

Tye is the father of three sons, one a veteran, another in service and the third will soon be eligible for induction. He urged that all concerned be told to "quit fooling and get back on the job." There was no discussion or dissent to the resolution.

Sen. McCarthy, one of the principals in the hearing and former chairman of the committee holding them, has been scheduled as "keynote" at the Republican pre-primary convention to be held in Fremont on May 24.

Mrs. Myles Standish of Omaha, who prior to the meeting had been referred to as the probable choice for vice-chairman, said Monday that she is not a candidate and never has been a candidate. She said she resented reports that she is anti-Eisenhower.

Personal Friendship
Mrs. Standish admitted that she has not always agreed with Indo-China policies of the administration, but said she considers that an individual has the right in this country to disagree on one thing and still favor the overall program.

The Omaha woman denied emphatically that she had set any "storm signals flying" and said her support of Spear was because of personal friendship and not because she was seeking office.

That she was creating a "storm" in Republican ranks, Mrs. Standish attributed to the imagination of those personally antagonistic to her "because I have told them to their faces what I think of them."

Denney Files For Short U.S. Senate Term

Max A. Denney, Fairbury attorney, filed Monday as a candidate for the Republican nomination for the short term in the U. S. Senate. It lasts from the November election until the beginning of the regular term of Congress in January.

The former administrative assistant to Gov. Robert Crosby said he was a "poor man" candidate and that he could not afford to put on a campaign like some of his opponents.

"It is true that Congress may not be in session during the period of time for which the individual selected may serve," Denney said. "But, it is also true that due to uncertain world and economic conditions, Congress could be called into special session."

Denney denied that there has been any "split" between himself and Gov. Crosby over the appointment of Mrs. Eva Bowring to succeed the late Sen. Dwight Griswold. He said he and Crosby recently had a very pleasant visit about political affairs.

"I feel that the experience I have had in local and state government, experience in Nebraska politics and my experience as a lawyer will help me fill this important position," Denney said.

How do you like the new Monthly Investment Plan?

[ONE-MINUTE INTERVIEWS]

PAUL BASSIN,
salesman, Elmhurst,
N.Y.

"Fine! I started with the M.I.P. when I heard companies listed on the Exchange pay such good dividends. One stock I am buying pays 4% and one pays 7%. Both companies should make profits this year, and if they do, I do."

WILLIAM J. HUOT,
vice president, St.
Paul, Minn.

"I'm buying $2,000 worth of stock at the rate of $40 a month. I'd never own that much stock without this new Plan that lets you buy a little at a time. When you can do that, there's no excuse for not owning stock, is there?"

ANN HUDDLESTON,
schoolteacher, Long Beach, Cal.

"I think it's just wonderful! I thought I'd have trouble deciding what stock to buy, but the broker I called on answered all my questions. I have stock in a company that hasn't missed a dividend since 1880!"

This pay-as-you-go Investment Plan is clearly explained in questions and answers in our new booklet.

The booklet tells how you can own any of 1,200 stocks listed on the New York Stock Exchange. Take your choice of successful companies and watch the number of shares you own grow. Dividends can be mailed to you or reinvested to build your holdings.

Before you decide to "own your own business" through buying stocks, be sure to get the facts—talk over the risks and rewards with a member of the Exchange. His advice is free.
